

Jordan B. Tatter Scholarship in Horticulture

Sponsored by the Michigan Vegetable Council and the Michigan Horticultural Society

Graduate Student Application Form

Submission Deadline – October 23, 2015

Summary:

The Jordan Tatter Scholarship in Horticulture was initiated in December 2003 by the Michigan Horticultural Society and the Michigan Vegetable Council. The scholarship provides support to students at Michigan State University pursuing a career in or working with the fruit and vegetable industries. Please view the video at <http://vimeo.com/29148310> before completing the application form.

Selection Criteria:

Academic excellence, demonstrated leadership abilities, service to the Michigan fruit and vegetable industries, and career aspirations.

Name: _____ Email _____ PID _____

GPA: _____

Thesis/Dissertation title: _____

Address: Street _____

City & Zip code _____

Tel. # _____

Degree: M.S. _____ Ph.D. _____

Starting Date: _____ Expected Completion Date: _____

Department/School: _____

PLEASE ANSWER EACH QUESTION BELOW

1. Provide a brief summary of your M.S./Ph.D. research and how your work can impact Michigan and Vegetable industries.

2. List all major scholarships, awards, and distinctions received, as well as recent presentations and posters related to the fruit and vegetable industries.

3. Participation in organizations and extramural activities:

4. Please describe your career aspirations below.

5. Provide a short description of how this scholarship is important for your career.

6. Please attach a one page resume or cv.

Submit the complete application as one single PDF file by October 23, 2015, to flore@msu.edu

PLEASE NOTE: ONLY ONE PDF FILE (THIS FORMAT ONLY) WILL BE ACCEPTED